Meeting ID: 973 7807 8126; Passcode: 0fCV#S

Agenda

This third quarterly Network consultation will provide an overall update on the way forward towards the first International Migration Review Forum (IMRF) of the GCM including Network members' engagement and communications.

In anticipation of this consultation, a number of guidance documents for the IMRF will be shared in advance with the Network, including a Network roadmap and elements note on stakeholder accreditation. These will be discussed in further detail in the agenda below.

In addition, a set of guiding questions is provided to help prompt our discussion:

- What are key aspirations and aims for the IMRF, the next phase of GCM implementation and the UN Network workplan?
- Emerging from regional reviews, what priorities need to be reflected in the Secretary-General Report that will feed into the IMRF?
- How can you become engaged in the preparatory process leading up to the IMRF?
- What activities and collaborations are being planned or do you propose in order to build momentum among Member States, UN entities, civil society and stakeholders in terms of:
 - demonstrating on the ground realities of GCM implementation/ IMRF preparations?
 - highlighting migrant voices?
 - preparations and capacity building?
 - communications and social media?
- How can we coordinate/collaborate together to strengthen participation of relevant stakeholders working to implement the GCM on the ground, including relevant national/county government officials, CSOs/NGOs/CBOs, migrants, private sector, employer's/worker's organizations and academia?
