Develop the guidance material for UN Country Teams 2-Day Training	March 2020
Pilot/Test training material in select Champion countries	April – July 2020
Progressive roll out of training material to UNCTs	October 2020 onwards

Stronger UN system for GCM implementation

Training for UNCTs

Objective

To provide guidance for UNCTs and other relevant stakeholders on how to better integrate migration into UN Sustainable Development Cooperation Frameworks (CFs) and Common Country Analyses (CCAs) as part of GCM and SDGs implementation. The training will:

- Present a whole-of-government and whole-of society approach to work in partnership across the UNDS and beyond to maximize the potential of migration to achieve sustainable development outcomes
- Adopt a participatory approach with extensive hands-on activities to increase learning
- Be flexible to adapt to unique country contexts and participant needs

Structure:

Designed as a 2-day training, the training package also serves as a stand-alone policy tool that can be referenced and put into action by a diverse range of practitioners and stakeholders

Supporting GCM national implementation plans

Guidance for Governments

Objective

To provide an easily digestible, adaptable and user-friendly reference document for governments and all relevant stakeholders to implement the GCM. The Guidance will:

- Be a self-guided reference document
- Reflect 360-degree approach of the GCM
- Be flexible, recognizing that every context country is unique and that there is no one-size-fits-all solution to GCM implementation

Structure

I. Understanding the GCM

Presentation of the GCM, including substantive content on all 23 GCM objectives covering key considerations, guiding questions, available resources and concrete examples that illustrate governments' actions aimed at achieving the specific objective

II. Implementing the GCM

A process to engage in GCM national implementation planning and review, consistent with the GCM guiding principles
