The Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) brought home 8 Filipinos who were victims of human trafficking from Syria.

The repatriates will undergo facility-based quarantine supervised by the Overseas Workers Welfare Administration (OWWA), in conformity with the health protocols set by the Department of Health (DOH).

They will also be subjected to RT-PCR testing for COVID-19 on Day 7 of their quarantine, sponsored by government.

Meanwhile, foreign Affairs Undersecretary for Migrant Workers' Affairs Sarah Lou Y. Arriola assured they will continue efforts to assist stranded Filipinos abroad.
